

GANDHI MANAV KALYAN SOCIETY - OGNA CHILD ABUSE DAY

Gandhi Manav Kalyan Society celebrates World Day - Prevention of Child abuse on 19th November, 09 at GMKS's head quarter Oгна - India. GMKS is largely involved in the protection of the rights of children among tribal communities since last couple of years. It has also formed a child Well Being Committee consists 11 members drawn from various field and background - which have deep interest in the protection of child rights. Now the committee is addressing the issues of violation of child rights in various villages of the Aravali region.

Annual global awareness campaign to create a culture of prevention of child abuse created in 2000 and commemorated every 19 November. In the our working region there are many child abuse issues are more prevalent and need to be addressed immediately i.e. Migration of child labour, children engaged in construction and mining areas who are more prone to getting exploit and occupational hazardous.

Objective of World Day for prevention of child abuse:

- To aware and sensitize the community on the violation of child rights
- To sensitize the local people and communities on child abuse
- Address the disadvantages of working at cotton seed plots and mining areas.

Keeping in view the above objectives a whole day program was conducted at Government Senior Secondary School hall Oгна with around 300 children, youth, teachers and volunteers of Gandhi Manav Kalyan Society. Before conducting the event it was also discussed that children from all the category i.e. physically handicapped, not get any formal education, children who visited Gujrat to work in Bt Cotton seed plot and other vulnerable children will be participate in the event. Beside that village volunteers, Teachers, have also participated.

Children performed dance, songs and also delieverd speech on that day and they all were very excited. Also performed a role play by folk media, through that they convey message towards child labour. Chief guests addressed that education is the key against every type of exploitation. And every one should assured towards child rights. That type of programs is essential for disseminating the information regarding child rights, education etc. In the end of the celebration, also distributed prizes to extraordinary children for encouraging them and other children will have been inspired from them.
